

Argentina Muzquiz Saavedra

September 21, 1941 - September 29, 2024

Argentina “Tina” Muzquiz Saavedra, 83, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on September 29, 2024, where she is now resting and rejoicing with her beloved Daniel and Roli.

Known for her lively and bubbly personality, Tina will be dearly missed by all who knew her. Tina’s family asks that she be remembered for the joy she brought to others in life not the sadness of her passing. Argentina “Tina” was born on September 21, 1941, in Piedras Negras, Coahuila, Mexico, the youngest daughter of her loving parents Lazaro Muzquiz and Soledad Robles Muzquiz.

She met the love of her life Daniel Saavedra while working at the Alameda Theater in San Antonio, Texas. They bonded over their mutual appreciation and love for dancing and laughing. The two lovebirds were married on December 27, 1964, at San Fernando Cathedral in San Antonio, Texas. This union produced two beautiful children, a son Rolando “Roli”, and a daughter Veronica. Tina and Daniel continued to dance, laugh, and share their lives together for 52 glorious years until his death in 2016.

In 1988, Tina began working at Providence High School as a valued member of the cafeteria staff until 2002. She delighted in her time working with her fellow staff, as well as nurturing all the young women that attended the school were fed and happy.

Tina especially loved shopping, dancing, and spending time with friends and family.

She was predeceased by her parents Lazaro and Soledad, her husband, Daniel, and her cherished son Rolando "Roli".

Remaining to cherish and honor Tina's memory is her beloved daughter Veronica and many loving friends.
