

Arlene Leola Wicker

June 28, 1926 - January 19, 2009

WICKER

Shy, with a subtle sense of humor, Arlene Wicker managed a lively youth during the war years, then settled into a conservative and stable adulthood as a career woman, wife, mother, and serious church-goer. She was more beautiful than Elizabeth Taylor and should have been nicknamed Snow White. Her taste in clothes was exquisite and her sense of color unusual and refreshing. She could design an outfit and, with what seemed like effortless skill, make it without a pattern. She held her extended family together with quite special Christmas gatherings, and loved all of us. Absent from our lives on January 19, 2009 from a quick and deadly infection, she remains in spirit and lives in our hearts. She is survived by her daughters, Edwina Edwards and Tammy Orloff; her grandchildren, David Edwards, Travis Orloff, and Rhianna Gonzales; and her great grandchildren, Brandon, Mitchell, Chelsea, and Ryan Edwards.

Services

Visitation will begin at 10:00 AM on Friday, January 23 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South followed by funeral services at 11:00 AM. Interment will be at Mission Burial Park South.
