For her 100th birthday during COVID many people from town did the drive-by birthday parade with cars decorated and waving with horns honking. She was loving every minute of it from the porch with family. One of the neighbors brought her Hawaiian group over to play, sing, and dance for the birthday celebration. PS

“ Dearest Robert and family: So many memories from my 4th grade and many more years later---running across the street to visit; having our mothers yell at us when we had rock fights (we'd be arrested now); and my favorite---taco eating contests on Saturdays! I'm so grateful for the memories your mother gave us all. Please know that thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
