

Armando Moran

January 21, 1954 - May 5, 2011

Armando Moran, born January 21, 1954, passed away Thursday, May 5, 2011 at the age of 57. Armando was a native and longtime resident of San Antonio and lived in Warner Robbins, Georgia since 1998. He was an aircraft painter and a member of the union. Survivors include his wife Rebecca Moran, children Armando Moran, Jr. and Crystal Lynn Moran, grandson Julian Alejandro Ponce, sister Irma M. Valdez, brothers Arturo Jr., Emilio, Mario and Carlos Moran.

SERVICES

Visitation will be held Monday, May 16, 2011 from 5:00 until 9:00 P.M. at Mission Park South with a rosary recited at 7:30 P.M. Funeral Mass will be celebrated Tuesday, May 17, 2011 at 9:00 A.M. at St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Interment will follow in Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Mando you were a great friend to many. Today, Our friend Mando continues to touch the hearts and minds of people here at Robins Air Force Base. To the Moran family, We are saddened to hear of your sudden loss. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are w

Kumkorn Skees - May 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

OA

“ My condolences to the Moran Family. I knew Armando, other brothers, & sister Irma...through my aunt and uncle, Benardo & Aurora Moran. My sister, brother and I did not get an opportunity to know Armando as much as the twin brothers and Manuel. You will

Oralia Aves - May 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM

EH

“ A great teacher, advisor and confidant. Mando you are missed my friend. You remain alive in my memories.

Elvis Haslem - May 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AM

“ Mando, my bud, my coworker, we shared alot of memories since 1985. I will always remember the fun times as well as the bad. Take a break Papa! You're at peace now. Our heart felt condolences to the Moran family from the Paint Hangar at Warner Robins AFB.

Andrew Montelongo - May 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

LD

“ To all the family and friends of Armando, my sympathy and sadness are with all of you. I've known Armando as a family member and friend. He is Mario my bro-in-lawbrother and he always treated me like a little sister when ever I would see him. I know it

Liz Dominguez - May 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM