“ My sincere condolences to the Ozuna family. My Padrino to me and my brother's and sister. We all looked up to our Pedrino and Padrina. They had so much love and joy they gave us. Pedrino always had his loving smile. I remember running into my Pedrino at the mall where he was doing his part as an voting official. There was my Pedrino with that great happy smile. RIP my dear Pedrino.

“ Our condolences to the Ozuna family. Armando Ozuna was our Padrino along with his lovely wife Emma. They baptist my three bothers, my sister and me. We had so much respect for them that we never called them by their name. He was always called Padrino. They were so full of Love. I remembered when we visited our Padrenos at the old house off of 36 street Padrino gave us money so our dad could take us to Rays drive in. Padrino was always ready to treat us. He was a kind and Gentle man with a big smile. May he Rest in Peace. Cathy Rubalcava Perez.
