

Armond Laurel

March 21, 1926 - November 30, 2019

Armond Laurel

Born March 21, 1926 – Died November 30, 2019

Armond Laurel was one of six children born to Francisco and Maria Reyes in San Antonio, Texas. After he served in the US Navy during the second World War, he returned to San Antonio and began a career in menswear at Pincus Company. Over the years he opened a menswear boutique, a Mexican import shop at HemisFair, and managed the Base Exchange at Clark AFB in the Philippines. He was also active in political causes in Texas, running for Bexar County State Representative and other regional offices. He is survived by his wife Alma Reid Laurel, and three children Deborah Laurel, Ron Laurel, Dawn Laurel Jones and her husband Tommy Lee Jones as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He enjoyed the companionship of many lifelong friends, visiting new friends at Grace Place, and the support of the team at The US Department of Veterans Affairs where he was treated with kindness and expert care to the very end.

Visitation will begin on Wednesday, December 4, 2019 from 5:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. A private service will be held on a later date.

“ Debbie, Dawn, & Alma -

My sincere sympathy on the loss of your father/husband. When my first wife Jo Ann died of cancer 26 years ago, my sorrow finally was replaced by joy over the 36 years the Lord had given us together. I learned that although life could never be the same without my high school sweetheart, it could still be good.

May the Lord be with you as you begin the next phases of your lives.
