

Aroldo Rodriguez Jr.

August 28, 1966 - April 15, 2025

Aroldo Rodriguez, Jr., age 58, passed away on April 15, 2025 surrounded by loved ones and the people he cherished. Aroldo was born on August 28, 1966 in Nueva Rosita, Coahuila, Mexico. He spent 30 years living in Chicago and graduated from Loyola University Chicago in 1988. He moved to San Antonio in 1998 to pursue his relationship with Rita Hernandez and worked at USAA for 26 years.

A devoted husband, a loving father, and a lifelong sports enthusiast, Aroldo lived his life with heart, humor, and unwavering loyalty—especially to his beloved Chicago Cubs. Whether he was watching a game at Wrigley Field or cheering from his favorite chair at home, he never missed a pitch and never lost hope, no matter the score.

Aroldo's greatest joy in life was being a father to his son, Marco. He cherished every moment they spent together—deep conversations about life lessons that only grew deeper with time. His love for his son was fierce, proud, and unconditional.

He was also a rock for his wife, Rita showing her a steady kindness and deep respect every day of their life together. They were married for 25 loving years and their bond was a quiet kind of strength, built on trust, faith, joy, and shared dreams for Marco.

Aroldo will be remembered for his stories about his beloved Chicago, dad jokes, his generous spirit, and the way he made everyone feel like they mattered. His legacy lives on in the hearts of his family, friends who became family, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

He is survived by his wife, Rita; his son, Marco; His father, Aroldo Sr.; his sister Diana Gosnell; his nephew and niece, in-laws and brother in laws... He was preceded in death by his mother Carolina...

“ Aroldo, it's hard to see you leave .. Had a good fortune of working with you for 4 years and we continued to stay in touch post that . Our conversations about Indian culture , Diwali , and movies still are fresh in my mind . How can I forget my last conversations with you it was positive and meaningful. Rest in Peace Aroldo .. you are in a much better place 🙏

To the family , I pray you find strength during these tough times..

“ Rodriguez Family,

*My deepest sympathies.
May God's perpetual light shine upon you.*

I had the honor of working with Aroldo. I truly enjoyed learning from him—his sense of humor, his passion for his work, and love of baseball. The last time we spoke of the Louisville Slugger Museum. I appreciate those moments.

Aroldo, you now have the best seat at Wrigley Field, my friend. May your soul rest in peace.

*With heartfelt condolences,
Lisa Alvarado*

“ As you peacefully retreat to your heavenly abode, these heartfelt words are for you, Aroldo. God has chosen to take you, as though divinely orchestrated, precisely the day after 04/14, which is halfway until your birthday, 08/28. It's as if He planned it perfectly. You know, he made you special and placed you here very purposefully, and it reflects in how you lived your life. To many of us, whose lives you've touched, it feels like you left too soon. But you have lived a beautifully complete life. A wonderful son that made his mom and dad proud, a husband, a terrific dad who raised a gem of a son, a devout Christian, a revered leader at your church, and an awesome corporate leader and mentor, who has made a special place in the hearts of many. We are so proud to have known you, and to have shared pieces of our journeys with you.

Nonetheless, you leave an irreparable void in our hearts and our lives. As deeply as we have known you, and shared with you, we all lost a piece of ourselves with you. All the wonderful memories you leave behind, the life lessons, the words of wisdom, the silly moments, we will cherish for a lifetime. Your positive spirit, unwavering cheerfulness, your kind heart, compassion, and your leadership will truly and deeply be missed. You fought a HEROIC fight, it's truly admirable and inspiring to me! I know that you're finally at peace, no more pain, no more apprehension and uncertainty. You have done well, Aroldo! May God keep your beautiful soul at peace. And until we meet again, stay at peace, stay smiling!

To the bereaved family: My deepest condolences. May the Almighty grant strength and solace during this difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing that you were deeply loved; that your loved one is now at rest; and that he will always watch over you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
