“ Thank you Arturo and Maria, for sharing your time and great company with myself and Pat. I've been reflecting on the conversations we had regarding Your Uncle and my Grandfather, Juan Castanon. Of course, we knew he had died in WW II, but until I met you and Maria, his death was all I knew. You and Maria gave him life, by rounding out his life for me. Thank you for going into his past life about what he was like to you and the things he did before his death, and for that, you will always have been a gift to me. You will always be well thought of and missed in this home. From the family of Juan Castanon (Paula), and their children, Martin, Stella (my mom), Luis, Lucia, and Juan Jr., Our deepest and most sincere sympathies to Maria, your children and grandchildren. God Bless.
