“ I’m so sorry for your loss. I never met my nephew, but we did share many games of Words With Friends. Of course he usually beat me! I am praying for all of you.
Love to you all.

“ I’m going to miss that smirk and his smile. I’ll always remember our holidays together and the weekends shared. I’ll always miss you, my friend. My heart goes out to Krystal and his children. We love you guys.

“ Art one of my oldest friends I’m so sad to hear about this . You were always a good friend it has been awhile since I’ve seen you but it would never change how you were family to all of us. My condolences to krystle and family we love you all.

“ My dad was a hardheaded man but had a big heart for his family. He blessed me with my 5 siblings and another parent to lean on. I'll miss him so much. I'll miss how he loved us all no matter what we did. I'll miss Sunday breakfast, and secret lunch dates when we weren't in school. I'll miss him yelling across the house for someone to get him something to drink like grandpa used to. I'll miss him making silly faces. I'll miss his random outbursts of songs and noises. I'll miss his crazy mixes of music. I'll miss his support for anything we tried and how proud he was of all of us. I'll miss how aggravating he could be. I'll miss him always. I love you dad. Rest easy.

“ Arthur's daughters were in my Girl Scout troop at Palo Alto elementary years ago. When he was there, he was always willing to jump in and help 40 girls with activities when we needed it. I know he will be greatly missed. Krystal, you and the kids are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I know Art felt like he was an A-hole. But I never saw him like that. All I saw was this beautiful boy! Then a beautiful young man. Then, an awesome amazing grown man as a husband, a beautiful Father. I always loved you ❤️ I always will. Love Aunt DiAnna
