“ I served with Art in Vietnam with B company 1/16 rangers in 1966-67. And I was with him when he was awarded three silver stars. I treasure our relationship although we reacted to combat differently. Art eye would get large welcoming what ever hell came. We last served and were wounded on June 15, 1967. Toward the end of a three hour battle where alternately we lost vision and Hearning, from fast mover bombs. When the company reconnected I was firing the machine gun disorientated with wounds in shoulders. Art was feeding the machine gun blind. I talk to Art about three times through the years, he wanted me to meet him Las Vegas but it never happened. My condolences to his wife and family, Art...
