“ My sincere condolences to my tia Diana and my cousins and their children. I have shared some good time and some bad times with my uncle, but today and forever I will chose to only remember the good ones, as an adult I was able to drink some beers, sing some songs and have some laughs together. I will not forget you my heart hurts to know that you will no longer be waving to me from across the fence, but I also know that you are no longer in pain, I have prayed long and hard for God to do his will because I knew you were in pain. Love you Arturo. RIP
