Asencion, also known as Connie, was an incredible and hardworking woman who loved spending time with family and friends. “ I have so many great memories of Tia Connie: her "petting zoo," her great sense of humor, and her Capilotada!! She would call my Gma Berta, and give attitude on the phone... ha!! But I would give it back and she would laugh. Too many memories to post, but she was such a special lady whom we all love and will miss greatly. Love you Tia Always -Bernie

“ I loved it when my Tia Connie called me Janie .She was the best aunt. Always cooking and made you eat even when you didn't want to. That smile of hers always welcoming you in the house. I loved it because she would chase Felipe around Chalmers with the belt and I'd be thinking better him than me. My condolences cousins we will try to attend but on behalf of Arturo&Virginia Renteria God bless you all.You know the situation with us so please exuse the family thank you.

“ Can always remember her laugh. Especially when we were playing a game (Loteria, STORK, or any game at a baby or bridal shower). She always wanted to know if we REALLY made a bingo, or whatever the object of the game was.

“ My Great Auntie, left me so much including memories and values....She enjoyed sharing her childhood experiences and I so enjoyed listening.
One of my many-favorite memories is when I drove my Great Aunties and my Mother to Corpus Christi. We took the "scenic route" to and from. I'm not sure I had ever laughed so hard before.
She will be greatly missed and forever treasured.
