“ I remember when the “Texas kinfolk” would visit NC. We would go to Grandma & Grandpa’s house to visit! One Christmas we took a group photo outside. It was so warm, we had our long sleeves pushed up & we were probably sweating! I also remember going to see the reenactment of The Alamo with Y’all! Good times make Great memories!

RIP Uncle Conrad, I love You! ❤️

“ I enjoyed the summers when Uncle Conrad Aunt Jeanette, Kevin, Lisa and Chris, came to the farm here in North Carolina. We would play a card game named Skip Bow, Also Chris and I would ride bicycles down to the creek and fish one time Chris got a big chain pickerel and we found a cassette tape by Queen in the road, Chris was so excited for that find. Most of all I’m going to miss Uncle Connor’s Big Laugh.

Godspeed uncle Conrad!
