A capable wife, mother and loving grandmother, Mama Tina adored her family. She loved to sing and did so at every opportunity, singing to her visitors just weeks before her death. As a Jehovah's witness, she shared the promise of God's coming kingdom at every opportunity. In addition to all ten of her children, many others came to know Jehovah through her. We also remember her by her various acts of kindness. For example, how she provided meals to friends and elderly neighbors over the years. Her generous spirit, gregarious personality, and contagious laughter will be missed by everyone who knew her.
