“ *My Tia Boris was like a big sister to my sisters and I during our summer stays in Monterrey. Her big smile, kind heart and outgoing personality always made us feel at ease. One of my fondest memories is the road trip Johnny and I made as newlyweds, with Tia and Tio, from Monterrey to Guadalajara. What an adventure and great time we had. Tia will be sorely missed, but always remembered. May God Bless her and her family.

“ Tia Boris was our favorite aunt. She was like her sister, my mother-in-law Irene, biggest heart that cared about all of us. Treated Sylvia like a daughter she never had. We will miss her enjoyable visits and hospitality. Mario and the boys are so fortunate to have a wife, mother like her. May God bless you all and the grand kids. She tried to leave us in a better world.
