

Autumn Desire Hernandez

August 14, 1995 - April 15, 2025

In Loving Memory of Autumn Desire Hernandez
August 14, 1995 – April 15, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved Autumn Desire Hernandez, who embraced God on April 15, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas, after thirteen courageous years of living with Lupus and other chronic autoimmune diseases. She was 29 years old.

Born on August 14, 1995, in Norfolk, Virginia, to Analisa and Pete Hernandez, Autumn was a loving daughter, sister, “Yaya,” granddaughter, cousin, niece, and friend. Her strength, warmth, and joy were a guiding light in the lives of all who knew her.

Autumn was a beautifully gifted dancer—expressive, graceful, and full of soul. Her talent on stage was only matched by the way she inspired others off of it. She was the best role model we could have ever asked for: kind, patient, and endlessly generous. She lived with such intention and heart, quietly showing us all how to be better people.

She is preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Yolanda Zamora. She is survived by her devoted parents, Analisa and Pete Hernandez; her cherished siblings, Ariana Hernandez and Pedro “Petie” Hernandez; her grandparents, Vidal Zamora Jr., Pedro and Irma Hernandez; her beloved dogs—her “furbabies”—Naoki, Nassau, and Ranger; and countless aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and treasured friends.

Autumn was loved by all and will be deeply missed by everyone whose lives she touched.
