“ Our first meeting with Nino occurred July 2016; arriving home from a hospital surgery there was water gushing from an outdoor faucet; leaning on a tree for support, I directed my spouse to the shut off valve by the road and much to my surprise the water was shut off— she returned with a man unknown to me (Nino) who had turned off our water— he ask if I would like for him to repair; accepting his offer off he went returning 45 minutes later with the necessary parts and repaired. I told my wife I would NEVER forget such an act of kindness towards a neighbor in need— Gods Angels come in all shapes and sizes; our Savior is surely smiling upon Nino and his family 🙏

“ Nino, I wish I could hear you tell me the long version of all the stuff you did to fix my car. I wish I could tell you all of the extra days I picked up at work, so I can see you make that goofy smile. I wish I didn't wake up every morning and remember this is reality. There is no man in this world that could ever be half of what you were. I just really hope it's true and you are still taking care of us from up there. I know I probably never said it, but you were the best dad. We miss you so much!

“ Tio, I remember everything you would come see my dad I would hear that contagious laugh. You were always happy when we would see you. I can't believe your gone. It's hard to accept that we won't see you anymore. You may be gone, but you will never be forgotten. Your memory will live with us for ever. R.I.P Tio ❤️
