

Barbara Joyce Duncan

April 6, 1933 - May 15, 2020

Barbara Joyce Schubert was born and raised by Alfred and Alice Schubert in San Antonio, Texas on April 6th, 1933.

She learned to play piano at age 3, and became a very talented singer and pianist. She attended Thomas Jefferson High School, where she met her future husband Dean. The two were married in 1957 after Dean graduated from Texas A&M.

Barbara worked in the insurance industry for several years, while raising two boys, Randy and Steve, then became very successful in the Tupperware business while maintaining the household and cooking fabulous meals for the family. She was a devout Christian her whole life, and continued to share her musical talents through the church well into her 80s.

She was admired and respected everywhere she went, and was a wonderful, dedicated, generous wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.

We love you and miss you dearly, Mom, aka Baby-Gam.
