

Barbara Lou Eickenroht

August 22, 1935 - March 10, 2023

Barbara Lou Eickenroht, 87 of Spring Branch, TX, was peacefully taken home to Heaven on March 10, 2023.

Barbara never met a stranger and insisted on everyone calling her Grandma. She loved to spend time watching the Game Show Network, rooting for the Dallas Cowboys and making memories with all of the kiddos. She was everyone's biggest cheerleader and tried to attend as many sporting events & awards ceremonies as possible. Barbara was also well known at the King William Parade for being the lady who would chase down the cops with confetti eggs!

Barbara retired from Southwestern Bell Corporation after more than 30 years of service and was the first female telephone installer in Texas. Her favorite pastimes were gambling in Las Vegas and puttering around in the yard.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Eickenroht; daughters, Phyllis Ponton & Paula Gage; granddaughter, Kayla Gage and great grandson, Nolan Goddard. She is survived by daughter, Pamela Makowski; granddaughters, Kristi Stuckey, Brenda Goddard, Bobbi Gage & Carli Gage; great grandchildren, Olivia Kisinger, Casen Goddard, Landree Goddard, Alison Stuckey & Huxley Gage; great-great grandchildren Aria, Zach, PJ & Penny and many other family members & friends.

Funeral services for Barbara will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, March 16, 2023 at Mission Park South Funeral Home in San Antonio. Burial will follow.
