

Barbara Lee Logan

May 14, 1935 - March 17, 2007

Barbara Lee Logan of Live Oak, Texas passed into the presence of God on March 17, 2007. Born on May 14, 1935, in Peru Indiana, Barbara grew up to graduate from Peru High School. Barbara met her future husband at a USO-sponsored serviceman's dance and married Owen Lloyd Gene Logan in May 1956. Barbara's life as an Air Force wife took her to foreign postings in England, Bermuda and Spain as well as state side assignments in New Mexico, Georgia, Texas, and Arizona before retiring to San Antonio in 1980. One of Barbara's proudest achievements was being named Zaragoza, Spain Air Base Wife of the Year in 1977. Barbara's generous and loving heart was shown through her active involvement with the Girl Scouts, Protestant Women of the Chapel, Parent Teachers Association and various volunteer activities. After being widowed in 1982, Barbara began a career with the United States Post Office where she worked until retiring in 2003. Barbara is survived by her daughters Lori Logan of Austin, Texas and Beth Logan Mace of Kingwood, Texas. Barbara loved her son-in-law Roy Mace like her own son and treasured her two grandchildren Daniel and Trevor Mace also of Kingwood, Texas. Barbara also leaves behind her daughter-in-love Marty Lopez, her husband Ricky and their children Daniel and Tiffany.

Funeral services will be held 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, March 22, 2007 at Valley View Seventh Day Adventist Church, 6630 FM 1516 North, Converse, Texas 78109. Flowers should be directed to Mission Park Funeral Home, 3401 Cherry Ridge, San Antonio, Texas 78230. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or the Alzheimer Foundation of America.
