

Barbara J. Mercado (Bouldin)

January 6, 1940 - September 5, 2024

Barbara J. Mercado (Bouldin) passed away on September 5, 2024, surrounded by her loved ones in San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 84. Born on January 6, 1940, in Nashville, Tennessee, Barbara grew into a fiercely independent, smart, and old-fashioned woman with a quick wit and a love for laughter.

Barbara went to Brackenridge High School before she pursued her passion for interior design in college. Her professional life was marked by a remarkable ascent from a receptionist at a small mortgage company in San Antonio to retiring as the Vice President of a prestigious mortgage company in Plano, Texas

She is survived by her son, David Fuller and his wife, Laura; her daughter, Alyson Woolley; six grandchildren, Kristin Dell, Kacey Brewer, Nicole McManus, Shannon Humphrey, Christopher Woolley, Stephanie Wright, and nine great-grandchildren. Barbara was preceded in death by the Love of her life and husband, Robert Kimball “Kim” Mercado, and her sisters, Susan, Janet, and Carol, affectionately known as “The Bouldin Girls.”

A Memorial Service will be held at Mission Park Medical Center Funeral Home, 8332 Fredericksburg Rd., San Antonio will begin at 11:30 A.M. on Thursday, September 12, 2024. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Leukemia Society in Barbara’s memory. Her spirit and legacy will continue to inspire those who knew her and loved her.

Private Interment for family members will be at a later date at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.
