

Barbara Natalie Meza

February 8, 1955 - December 10, 2014

Barbara Natalie Meza, 59, was called to be an "Angel" on December 10th, 2014 in San Antonio, Texas. Barbara was born to the late Gilbert Sr. and Natalie Meza. She is survived by her sister, Terry Meza Vasquez, brothers Gilbert Meza Jr., Patrick Meza, their spouses, as well as many nephews and nieces.

Barbara fulfilled her life as a resident of the Quail Run Home, in the loving hands of her caregivers and friends.

Barbara will be greatly missed by her family, but has been reunited in heaven with her Brother in law, "Richard" waiting with her chips and coke and "Hattie Helton "House Director.

On behalf of the family, we express a heart full of gratitude to everyone at Complete Life Care. Special appreciation to Carrie Calvert QIDP Administrator, Tenny Martin RN, and the Quail Run Staff, who provided excellent care for 19 years. To Unicorn and Providence NE Habilitation, who played a part in our sister Barbara's life. Thank You. May you all continue to be blessed for the care that you provide for Special Needs!
