“ Susan, I am so sorry to hear of your sweet mom’s passing. Besides my memories of her when we were little, she and I were in a speech class at Randolph AFB through SAC. We kept saying the other looked familiar. I wanted to tell her she looked like my childhood friend Susan Brand, but her name was not Brand and she looked too young to have a child my age. She was so pretty and sweet. We finally figured it out and had a good laugh. Hugs to you all and prayers.

“ We met Barbara when our Mom moved to New Haven. She was so beautiful and gentle. I immediately felt a connection with her. I was fortunate to meet her Aggie granddaughter, son and daughter-in-law. She was blessed with a lovely family. We adore Ted and will make every effort to touch base with him often. So very sorry for your loss. Peggy& Ann Rayfield 🙏❤️
