“ Barbara was a very good friend and a good neighbor. She was so admired by the Dimas Family. When my husband and my kids first moved in to the neighborhood she welcome us by coming and introduce herself. She ask me if I needed anything to let her know. she was a woman with a big heart. She started feeling down when her husband past away she would always tell me I sure do miss Archie he was my rock. I admired her how they both worked so hard to help her grandson (Ronnie) to learn how to be independent. Barbara was such a loving person. She is missed in our neighborhood and from the Dimas Family. May she rest in peace.
