“ Barbara (always Barbi to me) was the best sister a girl could ever want. Memories spill over like pages from an endless family album - the teenage sister who smuggled me sugar cubes from her dinner dates, who put my curly hair up in pin curls, who brought me home a pet snake from scout camp (our mother made me get rid of it), the skilled seamstress and my matron of honor who made my beautiful wedding dress, and the best friend who helped celebrate life's big events and commiserated with me over life's less satisfying moments. She was my hero, taking the punches life handed out (and she had more than her share) while maintaining her sense of humor. Barbi, I will miss you!

“ Barbara was a beautiful, loving, kind soul. I was blessed and privileged to have met and become a part of her and Matt's life this past year as she struggled with her health. Thank God she is in a better place where she has no physical limits and is free from all ailments. She will be dearly missed by the Rise Up Rehab team. God bless you, Matt and your family.
