

Baylor Eidelbach

May 24, 1929 - June 4, 2013

Baylor Merle Collins Eidelbach was born on May 24, 1929 in San Angelo, Texas and lived life to the fullest until June 4, 2013. At 84 years young, Baylor passed peacefully from this world due to a cerebral hemorrhage. This independent, fun-loving lady was a wife of 52 years to Mark Eidelbach, who preceded her in death. Baylor was a compassionate mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, mother-in-law, friend and neighbor. She enjoyed being a member of the International Porcelain Artists & Teachers, Inc. and numerous regional porcelain artist clubs, Castle Hills Women's Club, Castle Hills Garden Club, River Art Group and Gallery, and Petroleum Club of San Antonio Women's Auxiliary. Baylor was a talented artist and teacher and owned a porcelain art shop, Baylor's Studio, for several years. She will be remembered for her legacy of love to all who knew her, but especially by those fortunate enough to be part of her family. Baylor is survived by her sister, Grace Williams, and her husband, Mickey; son, Rosser Eidelbach, and his wife, Donna; daughter, Ellen Pitluk, and her husband, Lee; daughter, Jennifer Eidelbach; granddaughter, Katie Tucker, and her husband, Mike; granddaughters, DeeDeeEidelbach and Jessie Pitluk; grandson, Mason Pitluk; and great-granddaughter, Reagan Tucker. The family would like to thank the healthcare professionals at the San Antonio Military Medical Center for its excellent care and Sharon and Bob Chatham for being on-call.
