“ My cousin Bea, was my first cousin once removed. My mother Dora Saucedo and she were first cousins. In 1995, I found my Auntie Bea, via mutual cousin from Houston. Over the years, we had wonderful visits. She shared many pictures and information about the Lozano Zambrano side of the family. I am forever grateful to her.

I am sorry to hear about cousin Bea's passing. She was such a sweet gal with a compassion for others and a zest for life. She was a devoted family member and loved and visited her aunt, my grandmother, Petra Saucedo, often. Her mother, Tillie, was also very sweet and she always had a ready smile, just like Bea. Condolences to her family. What a loss for the world! I'm sure she's charleando with my mom, her mom and my granny,now in heaven.

“ Manny,
Words will never express the sorrow my family feels for you on the passing of your mother. She was a wonderful person who always had a big and beautiful smile and one who would always love to converse with you and share wonderful thoughts. When I first started my career with SAPD she would make mention to always wear gloves on my hands when searching a prisoner if all possible. This was the kindness she would share with anyone. Beatrice, you created memories for us every time we gathered as a family and memories I will always cherish forever. Thank you for your contribution to the nursing medical field and thank you for being a part of our lives. I will miss seeing you sitting outside in the front yard on your chair as I would walk by in the park in the evenings. My condolences to the family and may you Forever Rest in Peace. God Bless You Always.

“ I have always been proud to share the same birthday with Aunt BeBe and to have been named after her. I still have the gold Aquarius ring she gave me when I was in grade school. When we were kids, if we saw Aunt BeBe come to our house and get out of her car carrying her nurse's bag and a small white enamel pan with a red rim, we all ran to hide because she was there to give us our shots for school. I always screamed and cried the loudest. Thank you for loving us and keeping us healthy. RIP Aunt BeBe ❤️🙏

Love,
Bea (Esquivel) Conklin
