

Beatrice M. Gongora

February 6, 1926 - February 4, 2021

Beatrice Medina Gongora, born on February 6, 1926 was called to the Lord on February 4, 2021, just two days short of her 95th birthday. She is preceded in death by her husband of 34 years, David L. Gongora, who was called to the Lord on June 17, 2013, her parents Louis J. Medina and Ruth G. Martinez, her sisters Gertrude Chavez and Catherine De La Cruz and step-brothers Lee Paiz and Jimmy Hodgkinson. She is survived by her daughters Linda Gonzales (Robert Ortiz), and Patricia Hamilton (John Hamilton). Beatrice has five grandchildren, Linda Benavidez, Justin Gonzales, Adrienne Rodriguez, Cristina Medina and Alexis Hamilton. Beatrice also has eight great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Beatrice was born and raised in San Antonio, Texas and attended Fox Tech High School. Beatrice was much loved and admired by all who knew her. Mom was a survivor and independent woman, these qualities she instilled in her children and grandchildren. While her husband was alive, they traveled and enjoyed all that life had to offer. In her last years Beatrice moved to Houston in 2017 to be closer to her family. As Beatrice made her journey to be with David she was met with open arms and a warm smile.

“ Even as a little girl I can remember her being a very classy lady in the way she carried herself and her nice wardrobe. My daddy as well as my 7 siblings were Blessed to have her in our lives for a time. May she rest in peace.

I feel very blessed to have known Bea. Yes she was a classy lady and a loving and caring person. I have fond memories of the time she spent with our family. May she Rest In Peace.

Pat and Linda, your Mom taught me how to make her light and fluffy flour tortillas. And for that I am ever grateful. Every time I make them I think of her. So a part of her lives on in me.

May the grace and peace of Christ be with you all.
