BEATRICE "BO" MARROCCO

On Nov. 13, 2012 "Bo" was called by our heavenly father and is seated in her place in heaven. Bo was born on June 27, 1940 to Beatrice and Natividad Cano. She graduated Fox Tech 1958 and married Dominic Marrocco Feb. 1964 on May 6, 1968 son Edmond was born.

Bo was a great mother, wife, homemaker and cook. Her husband's work, demanded they move 5 times during his career. Each time she took the responsibility of establishing the homes and making them loving and beautiful. They lived in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Puerto Rico and finally retiring in San Antonio. Bo also enjoyed the outdoors and played tennis at a competitive level.

Bo's parents have passed and she is survived by her husband, Dominic; son Edmond; sister, Gloria A. Cano and brother, Robert Cano; Tia Eva Sanchez. Family in New Jersey who are sister-in-law Crossetta Frank Pagliuso and brother-in-law Anthony Christina Marrocco. Nieces and nephews are: Lee Ann George, Paul Debra George and Nicole Cano, Frances & Freddy. In New Jersey, Frank Pagliuso, Anthony Jodie Pagliuso, Dominic Jen Pagliuso, and Andy Marrocco, Chris Katy Marrocco, Brianna and Danny Marrocco. Also numerous loving great nieces and nephews in both San Antonio and New Jersey.

Bo was a diabetic most of her life and when high blood pressure and diabetes took their toll on her kidney functions, her sister Gloria gave Bo "The gift of life" and donated one of her kidneys allowing Bo 12 more years of additional life. For that our families are indebted to Gloria.

During Bo's 12 year history of surgeries, the transplant and other procedures, one doctor, Dr. Alan J. Merin, deserves the highest praise, thanks and appreciation. He saved Bo's life on three separate occasions. God bless him.
