“ Paul, John and Belinda
Heaven has gain a beautiful Angel; your Mom. Your Mom was strong will, a go getter, she was my inspiration. I was always amazed by her determination. She wasn't scared to try something new. I remember one Sunday I took her and Mama to the Latino People Magazine Festival . I turned around for a second and your Mother was on a computer . I asked her what are you doing she said registering to win a car. She said at the Seniors they taught us how to use the computer. She was like a Pro on that computer. We had some good laughs on our Sunday outings.
God bless you and your family and watch over you all during this most difficult time. Love y'all

Tia I was blessed to have been able to spent many Sundays with you. We will miss you, I'm sad that have gone, but at peace thar you have reunited with Uncle Paul and Martha. Give my Dad a hug and all our family members. Until we meet again Tia Vaya con Dios 🙏❤️

“ Mrs Beatrice as my kids and I called her, was a loving mom and grandma. She loved God fiercely. We got to stay with her and check on her several times the last couple of years and she was so sweet and kind. One Sunday morning we read the daily word together and she prayed for us. Her daughter Belinda was so lucky to have such a wonderful mom for so long. She will greatly be missed.

*My condolences to Mrs. Martinez’s Family. I had the pleasure and honor to work with Mrs. Martinez when we were at Columbia Heights Elementary in the Harlandale S.D. She was always so sweet and kind to everyone! She never complained about anyone or about a task that was asked of her. I remember her as a very beautiful, classy lady , as well as a sharp dresser! Mrs. Martinez was one of those people that make a difference in your life, that you will never forget. I will light a candle for her as she goes to her next life, and will keep her in my prayers. Rest in peace Mrs. Martinez.

“ Mrs. Martinez (or mom as I referred to her) was a precious soul and will always be remembered in my heart for her love of dancing and sharing stories from the past. To know here was to truly appreciate her and all the advice and stories she shared. I will miss her funny comments about food and Camelia. She will be in my heart and surely missed. “ Mrs. Beatrice Martinez, my mother-in-law will always be in our hearts. She was a strong, hardworking, beautiful lady, who always remembered everyone’s birthdays and anniversaries. She made sure to give you or mail out those cards with money and would say “by yourself something that you need.” Dona Beatrice, as I would call her, shared with our family many special moments that will never be forgotten.

May she RIP 🙏

Love and Respect Always,

Your Daughter-in-law,

Liz Martinez
