“ Aunt Bea,
Thank you for answering your phone whenever I called Thank you for Opening your door whenever we stopped by Thank you for Asking questions about my parents, siblings & family
Thank you for treating my family with kindness
You didn't have to do any of that, i remember that about you
Rest In Peace in a better place
Love

“ Susan's Mom and I would have candid and sincere long-distance phone calls the past few years, usually after Susan was wrapping up a call to her, or on the holiday call events. Since Dad (Fred) passed, I don't think made a personal visit to Bea as a son-in-law (now - I wish I had). She always asked direct questions (just as my own Mom would) to see or hear what I was really ever thinking. I will miss those calls but will easily recall and listen to the conversations in my mind. Love you Mom!!
