December 30, 1956 - August 24, 2021

Wife, Mother, Sister and our loving friend was ushered into the kingdom of heaven on the faithful morning of the 24th of August 2021. She was a loving mother of three, a wife to a hardworking truck driver a grandmother to six children and great-grandmother to two girls. She loved fiercely her puppy companions and was an avid collector. Belinda welcome all whom she met with open arms and a full heart. A natural hard worker ethic, earned her the title of Driver recruiter and has earned many continuing education accomplishments in her early career. She had never met a problem that determination and hardworking attitude could not defeat. She loved the outdoors and the feeling of being in nature. May her love of cooking and her affection for the Christmas season be one of her fondest memories growing up in her house, and the same spirit of giving with was a devotion practiced year round. We will love her and miss her in the many years to come and we know she is in a place with no more suffering and with happiness for ever more. Forever in our hearts you will always be.
