

Benita Flores Lopez

June 15, 1942 - July 23, 2023

Benita F. Lopez entered the Kingdom of Our Lord at the age of 81 years young. Benita, as she was known as “Benny” was a loving caring wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and friend. Whom will be dearly missed and loved.

Benny comes from a large family. Father, mother and numerous brothers and sisters. Benny was a strong, disciplined woman. But at the same time a very loving soul. She did not believe in “Beating around the bush”. She was honest and direct. Our father and her raised five sons. Which made her that much stronger. Growing up, my mom always told us “There is no such thing as a girl’s job.,” meaning-cleaning, cooking, etc...

Throughout her adult life Benny dealt with many medical issues. But the strength and discipline in her kept her driving forward.

She fought lupus and was in remission for a number of years. However, lupus reared its way back out to overcome her. I feel at this point God came to her and said, “You’ve fought enough my child, It’s time to come home.” So, God took her home to paradise.

Benita is preceded in death by her son Rodney F. Lopez. She is survived by her loving husband, Ignacio H. Lopez, sons, Arthur F. Lopez and his wife Gail Ann Lopez, Ernest F. Lopez, Thomas F. Lopez, Robert F. Lopez.

Grandchildren, Arthur Lopez, Eric Lopez, Kevin Lopez, and Tiffany Lopez, numerous great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

We don't say goodbye to Benita, we just say "Till we meet again in heaven."
May God bless you Momma!!
