

Benita G. Luna

May 10, 1935 - October 31, 2012

Benita G. Luna was called by the Lord to come home on Wednesday Oct. 31, 2012. She went peacefully surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on May 10, 1935 in Edna, TX. Her parents were Felix and Victoria Gomez who received her in heaven along with her siblings, Inez, Santos, Juan, Julio, Manuel, and Luis. She leaves behind her husband of 63 years, Jesus and two daughters Petra Cipriano, Frances Guadalupe, four sons, Jose Margaret, Luis Grace, Paul Loretta and Benito Debra and one brother Leroy. She had fourteen grandchildren that adored her, Michael, Jason, Vanessa, Joseph, Christina, Juliana, Frank, Victor, Marissa, Louie, Cindy, Charles, Abigail and Benito. She had numerous great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. She was a loving beautiful person. She always needed to feed everyone that walked into her home. She was a wonderful cook who taught us all to cook. She has left some many happy memories to everyone who knew her. We are thankful that we had her as a wife, mother and grandmother. She loved her Spurs and Dallas Cowboys. She was an animal lover who always had cats and dogs in her home. She also leaves behind her cat Mimi. Our mother taught us to always love each other and never carry any anger or ill will towards others. She prayed her rosary all the time so she is leaving us a very strong and powerful legacy.
