He is survived by his longtime companion, Deborah Saldana, his godson, Alex Sanchez, and twin brother, John Piscatelli (Lori). He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews and cousins. Benny lived an extraordinary life, as a young man, he worked as a Merchant Marine and was able to travel to such places as Norway, Switzerland, Germany, England, Brazil, Argentina, etc.... He often reflected on his travels and experiences. Later he encountered problems with his vision due to macular degeneration, however, he did not let it slow him down.
