“ Oma, you were a grandmother like no other. You didn't give two shits about me having a brew or two when I graduated HS because you knew I was responsible enough not to do anything irresponsible, even buying brew for my chums Matt, Auggie, and I when we stayed with you. And to hear of your exploits in being an NHRA racecar driver blew my mind as well as the minds of others. The time you lost your family is when you showed great strength in pressing onward. I told you before and it still remains true that Spider-man, superman, batman, even every medal of honour recipient didn't have shit on you because you are the strongest person in this world to have gone what you went through and still keep kicking ass and taking names in the life you lived.

wir lieben dich sehr, Oma... :(
