

Bernice Rosalie Hajek

October 8, 1927 - September 3, 2004

Hajek

Bernice Rosalie Hajek born October 8, 1927 went to be with the Lord on September 3, 2004 at the age of 76. Her loving presence will be greatly missed by all. Bernice was a woman of great compassion, strong character and principle. Her love, generosity, and compassion knew no boundaries. Everyone who came into contact with her was treated with the same dignity and respect that was shown to family. Her sense of humor, her selflessness, and love of life, is a great blessing to all who knew her. Bernice was married to her soul-mate and best friend, Bob Hajek, for 55 years. She was Executive Secretary to the Director of Food Services for Harlandale ISD for 23 years. She also devoted her time and services to St. Lawrence Catholic School as Cafeteria Manager. She also volunteered her time to St. Leo's Catholic School as Health Director. Bernice loved fishing, hunting, the outdoors, bowling, and Las Vegas. She is survived by her beloved husband, Alvin R. "Bob" Hajek; daughters, Liz Hajek, Linda Stone and husband Lyndon; sons, Wayne Hajek and wife Janet, Skip Hajek and wife Terri; brother, Ernie M. Truelson, Jr.; grandchildren, Eric Hajek and wife Amy, Melissa Simon and husband, Travis, Jessica Campbell and husband Gabe, Joe Hajek and wife Christie, Jeff Hajek and wife Tonya, Julie Hajek, Jason Hajek, Kim Pollok and husband Quintin, Lindsey Stone, Michael Stone; great-grandchildren, Tanyon Hajek, Keira Hajek, Robbie Simon, Kaitlyn Hajek, Reagan Hajek, Delaynie Pollok, Tatum Pollok.

“ Dad,

I am sorry the funeral home did not have this email guestbook for mom in the paper on the Sunday when the announcement came out. It took them 5 days to get this in which is sad because so many wanted to send their warm wishes and condolences to us.
