

Bertha A. Aguinaga (Gomez)

July 30, 1957 - September 15, 2018

Bertha A. Aguinaga (Gomez) was born July 30, 1957 in San Matias, Mexico to Benito G. Gomez and Hilda R. Gomez. She went to be with the Lord on September 15, 2018 in San Antonio, Texas. Because of the age difference between Bertha and her younger siblings she cared for them almost like a mother rather than a big sister. Bertha was a strong, independent woman and worked for NISD for 31 years. She loved watching her novelas and taking care of her grandchildren. Bertha was a great cook and our family dinners won't be the same without her amazing tamales, mole, and turkey. She is preceded in death by her mother Hilda R. Gomez and brother Joe E. Gomez. She is survived by her father Benito G. Gomez, siblings Benito R. Gomez, Gilbert C. Gomez, Louis Gomez, Sandra L. Villarreal, Hilda Y. Cortinez, Sergio G. Gomez, and Leo Gomez, son Jesse Aguinaga, grandchildren Jordan, Jalen, and Brooklyn, as well as numerous nieces and nephews and a lifetime of friends.

“ It is so saddened that Ms. Bretha left this world to earlier. When I meet her, it was like I knew her for along time. She was soooooo happy to always see use. The day she left the facility, my mommy cry and miss her, and us too. We will miss her jokes, stories of her young and some time curse the nurses cause they were handle her wrong, and we would laught because she was so polite will spoken, but was human. I had promise my mommy that I would check up on her in time and time, I promise is completed and now shes is with my beloved mommy. My she R.I.P. Ms. Bretha you will be miss. My deepest condolences to the Gomez famlies from the Cuellar-Chapa family. GOD bless y'all.

“ My deepest condolences to all the Gomez family. Bertha is with our Almighty Father and living in His palace she is rejoicing with her wonderful mother and with her brother Joe. Prima my memories of you are all good we had some fun times together. In my thought about death is if you keep the person alive in your heart & mind that person did not die, it's when you forget that person that's when that person has died. So within me you'll always be alive. Rest in peace prima love you
