“ Dear Aunt Fay,

Another year has passed and I still think of you often. Every time I see a commercial on tv for humane society, I think of you since you were such an animal lover. I will see you again some day.

Miss and love you.

“ My Dear Dear Sweet Aunt Faye,

I have the warmest memories of you and visit them often. You made the best "fizzies" in the world, while I sat on the kitchen counter watching. I was sure I was going to be a hairdresser, my earliest memories are of us in Rest in Peace. I know that you and my beloved Grandmother are together now.

“ My mother, Eva Wilson, worked for Faye for years at her beauty salon and loved her so much. Faye fixed my hair over 50 years ago for my marriage to Wally. She was so prim and proper and always cared about her appearance and it showed. She will be greatly
