“ I lived next door to Bertha and Ray for about 12 years. They were both caring and kind and had hearts for animals. Bertha enlisted the help of some neighbors to rescue about 8 or 9 kittens and a mamma cat who had been abandoned and showed up at her home. On another occasion, she and Ray and I managed to flush out a very tiny black kitten from behind their tool shed; the kitten would have surely perished, if not for their efforts. Bertha was a special person that I'll miss. May she rest in peace in the eternal light of Christ.
