Bertha S. Trevino

February 24, 1938 – March 29, 2019

Bertha S. Trevino born in San Antonio, Texas on February 24, 1938; went to be with the Lord on March 29, 2019 at the age of 81. My Mom was better known to everyone as Grandma Bert. Grandma Bert was about family. Raised 5 children, babysat for all the grandchildren, babysat friend's children, help raise Jahnna, Billy and Bobbi when their Mother passed away, took care of Diana who has cerebral palsy, helped raise Jessica (Diana's daughter) and was helping raise Adrian (Jessica's son). Grandma Bert was where you went if you needed a place to stay, were hungry, or needed advice. Grandma Bert was close to my Dad's nieces and nephews. Her best friend Ramona will surely be waiting to greet her at the gate. I can see them listening to Connie Francis records laughing and joking around. Grandma Bert you are so loved. We will miss you tremendously but we know you were tired. We will be alright because you taught us well. Give everyone a kiss and a hug-Junior, Mona, Rosa, Adam, Augie, Rosa M, Moncita, Amelia, Gloria, Mario, Joey, Estella, Fina, Sylvia, and all our other relatives. You finally get to meet Jason. We love you Grandma Bert and we will never forget you. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Jose Pagan, parents Felipe and Lydia Sandoval, sisters Josephina Garcia and Estella Aguilar, son Joseph Albert Pagan, great grandson Jason Anthony Pagan and multiple sisters in law, nieces and nephews. Survivors include her loving children: Ann Bethel Pagan, Pedro Pagan, Cynthia Pagan, and Diana Black, grandchildren: Angel Cantu, Arthur Cantu, Brandi Pagan, Taylor Pagan, Maxi Garcia, Pedro Alejandro, Joseph Pagan, Jahnna Seelig, Bobbie Pagan, Robert William Pagan, Amanda Medrano and Jessica Sands, 20 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephew and other family members and friends. She will be dearly missed.
