Tribute Wall

“ I miss you Nana, and love you I know your in heaven but know that I think about you even still. I remember staying in your house and the stuffed animals I was obsessed with that you kept. I remember walking to school with you when I was little. My fondest memories are probably living across the street from you for that little time. That and walking to the little Mexican restaurant down the road. How you told me that "shh" it's a secret. Small things like that the time we got to spend together is something I always remember fondly.
