“ *She was a very special aunt and we had some of the greatest times together. It's true she made you laugh until you cried. I remember one time I went to visit her in Louisiana and we went to a gambling boat and rode the elevator to second floor. It got stuck between floors and her and I nearly died (we are both claustrophobic) and when time to leave, we walked down stairs and laughed all the way down about how we wouldn't get stuck again. So many memories and so much fun. You will be missed and I will always love you.
