

Betty Jean Heitkamp

August 27, 1929 - May 21, 2012

Betty Jean Heitkamp

August 27, 1929-May 21, 2012

Betty Jean Heitkamp, beloved and proud mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, died in her northeast San Antonio home on Monday, May 21, 2012 of natural causes. She was 82. Ms. Heitkamp was born on August 27, 1929, in Traverse City, Michigan to William and Emily Klauss. Growing up she played the organ and studied Latin. She received a bachelor's degree in English from Texas Lutheran University and continued her education, receiving a master's degree from Trinity University. Ms. Heitkamp then became a 3rd grade school teacher for a short time at a local San Antonio elementary school. Ms. Heitkamp enjoyed singing karaoke and was an avid sports fan, always rooting for her San Antonio Spurs and Dallas Cowboys. Survivors include her brother, John Klauss of Pipe Creek; a daughter, Emily Margrett of Bastrop; and two grandchildren, Matthew and Alexander Margrett of Bastrop. Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning at Mission Park North Chapel and Cemetery.