“ Reading the Obituary on my Sister, her talents went far beyond just being Artistic, she could have been a professional story-teller, we grew up in a period where money was hard to come by, so my sister Betty would gather all her younger siblings and start telling stories once she started we never wanted her to stop, because she was so magical with her expressions & words, the amazing thing she would pick a subject and make up a story around it, to this day her story-telling is my favorite Memory of my Childhood.

God Bless My Sister

RIP My Amazing Sister, your loving Brother Bill.
