

Betty Jean Maroscher

August 12, 1934 - May 11, 2024

Betty Jean Maroscher peacefully made her transition to be with the Lord on May 11, 2024 at the blessed age of 89. She was born on August 12, 1934 in Ashland, Kentucky. She was the first daughter born to Raymond (Ray) and Virginia Boggs.

Betty married the love of her life Major Albert G. Maroscher on March 21, 1955. Together, they enjoyed traveling the world. Major Maroscher served in honor in the United States Army. His last tour of duty was in the Vietnam War. Betty was an avid learner and had a sweet spot for education. She graduated as a valedictorian from Central High School, Columbus, OH in 1951. She received a B.S. in Elementary Education from Hardin-Simmons Univ. in 1967, M.S. in Library Science from Our Lady of the Lake Univ. in 1970, M.Ed. in Educational Supervision and Early Childhood Education from Trinity Univ. in 1975.

Betty entered the workforce as a fourth and fifth grade elementary school teacher. She became an Educational Media Reference Librarian at Trinity University from 1971-1975. In 1975, she began her journey at St. Philip's College as a Media Faculty Librarian in the Audio-Visual Department. Betty was later promoted as the Learning Resource Center Coordinator. After researching the valuable history of St. Philip's College, she compiled its information into a historical reference guide. Betty was the first in the Alamo College District to develop an Archive Department and a children's area in the library. She received many awards and accolades throughout her career. She loved St. Philip's College with all of her heart. Her motto was always Students First. Betty J. Maroscher retired in 1999.

Betty is now joined with her heavenly family; her husband, Major Albert G. Maroscher; beloved parents, Raymond (Ray) and Virginia Boggs; sister, Helen Joyce Bumgarner; brother, Raymond Keith Boggs; nephew, John Charles Brannon; and fur babies, Tina and Misti.

She leaves to cherish her memories; two sisters, Janet Sue Brannon and Sharon Kay Goldhardt; special friend & God daughter, Ola L. Robinson-Thompson; and a host of nieces and nephews.
