“ My deepest condolences go to Jim and his family for the loss of Betty Miller. She was such a loving, sweet person. I will always treasure memories of the lovely times I spent with her, especially the Thanksgivings in her home. What a good cook and warm, gracious hostess she was. Betty was a good person. I know she is in heaven now and rejoicing with loved ones who went before, especially her beloved great grandson, Nick. What a privilege to have known Betty in this life.

Sincerely,
