

Betty Mae Paget

May 31, 1922 - February 6, 2011

BETTY MAE PAGET

Born May 31, 1922, passed quietly in her apartment Sunday morning February 6, 2011. She was beloved by her family and friends, a Bible teaching servant of her Lord until her passing. She was preceded by her Husband Clarence M. Paget and survived by her son Stanley Paget of Seattle, Washington, and her grandchildren Barbara and Wesley. She lived in Springfield, Missouri until health forced her to join family in San Antonio last November.

Tribute Wall

MT

“ The Elizaabeth Class of Second Baptist Church in Springfield, Mo lost a very much loved friend when Betty left. Words cannot describe what she meant to each of us. But God wanted her and she is with her loved ones now. Thank you for sharing her with us

Marge THOMPSON - February 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM

KM

“ My grandma once said to me... Kerry did you see those flowers outside...to be honest I hadn't noticed them. But one flower I did notice..Betty.. May she rest in peace and may peace and comfort be with the family.

Kerry Miller - February 12, 2011 at 12:00 AM

KT

“ my prayers are with your family at this time

kevin tresemer - February 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM