Betty Lou is known to many as “Nanny” she was not just a mother she was a Rachael Ray in the kitchen. She prepared Thanksgiving dinner for 50 plus years for her family and friends. Her cornbread dressing was a Blue-Ribbon delight.

Nanny would also bake homemade pies; she made the best pecan, coconut, and chocolate ones. Betty Lou was a strong, loving, courageous woman that everyone could depend on. She will be greatly missed.

The family would like to thank Trinity Hospice for all their love, support, and care during her illness.

“ I spent lots of my childhood at nanny's house watching the klrn sit and be fit lady, letting her put curlers in my hair telling me I was gonna look like Shirley temple, I remember every childhood thanksgiving was spent playing outside on the peach tree with all my cousins. Every year on my birthday she would make me a zucchini cake and deliver it personally❤️ I'll be forever thankful she was able to be there for so many generations of family from her children to mine, I'm gonna miss nanny so much but I find peace in knowing she's with my papas dad (Lindbergh) her parents, aunt patsy and my dad (Steven) I love you nanny you will always be remembered and loved ❤️
