

Betty Spiser

April 1, 1933 - February 25, 2015

Betty Jean Kersten Spiser, 81, went to be with her Lord on Wednesday, February 25, 2015. She was preceded in death by her husband, Willard Spiser, and her daughter, Dr Valarie Spiser-Albert, both of San Antonio. She is survived by her three daughters, Jennifer Woodruff Howard of Goodyear, Arizona, Holly Foley David of Helotes, Texas, and Kristi Jarvis Jeff of Salado, Texas, by her grandchildren David Foley, Nina Foley, Sydney Jarvis and Jeremy Jarvis and her son-in-law Jim Albert of San Antonio. She has one surviving sister, Alice "Jo" Carlson of Rapid City, South Dakota and friend, Vicki Neeb of San Antonio, whom she loved as a daughter.

Betty was born in Neligh, Nebraska on April 1, 1933, to Margaret and Edwin Kersten. She moved to Amarillo Texas in her teens where she met her husband, Willard, at Trinity Lutheran Church. They were married on November 23, 1952. The Spiser family moved to San Antonio, Texas in 1966. Betty was an active member and served as secretary at Redeemer Lutheran Church and School. She left her secretarial job to work with Willard at their business, Alamo Hearing Aid Service. Betty continued to work there with her daughter, Holly, after Willard's death in 1990. She and Willard were active members in the San Antonio Lutheran Charity Coronation Association in the early 1980s. Betty especially loved being with her grandchildren. She's been an active member at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church since the late 1990s. Betty was a true child of God and witnessed His love throughout her life.
